

Roles and Responsibilities

EHSS-Phos Program – Railroads, Appendix B

Responsibilities The following table contains a listing of responsibilities for specific groups /jobs as required by this program.

Group or Title	Responsibilities
Business Unit	Maintain the EHSS Phos Railroad Program
Site Leader	Ensures that this program is applied at their facility
Hazmat Employee	Per DOT a hazmat employee means a person who directly affects hazmat transportation safety including: Loading or unloading hazmat; Preparation of tank cars for transportation.
Health and Safety Managers	Provide subject matter expertise and oversight of the implementation of this BU program at the facility level
Area Managers	Upholds the requirements set forth in this program
Supervisors	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Apply the program requirements• Hold all individuals accountable for program requirements
Workers	Comply with program requirements
Rail Fleet Maintenance Manager	Determine which HAZMAT railcar repairs require internal versus external service by a certified mobile unit or repair shop.
Qualified Inspector	Employee designated by each site to directly or through a third party uphold requirements set for in this program for track inspection and maintenance.